Letter of the week "Hh"

Go through this word list with your child. Write out each of the words individually on strips of white paper.

How to Teach: Spell out each word together, point to the letters as you do so (have child point with you), and after it is spelled out, have child repeat and say the full word out loud. You can draw a small picture of the larger words (nouns) next to the word written out to help with reading skills and recognition.

Word List:

he	hat	hit	his	had
hen	has	hi	high	horse
hand	hear	hair	horn	happy

Assessment Rubric:

Fill out after completion of each daily lesson. Check the box that is accurate to the learning of your child for each activity. If you checked "some" or "no" understanding; you must revisit those concepts with your child at another time for learning to occur and "full understanding" to be mastered.

Activity:	Food Sensory Art	Letter Activity	eStorybook	Objects list	Word list & Tracer pages
Child participates
Child shows no understanding
Child shows some understanding

Infant Activity

Materials needed:

Hard items (I.E. hard book, large rock, hard toy, canned food or baby food jars, and hard large ball)

What to teach:

Place the hard items on the floor in front of your infant. Allow them to explore with those items on their own. This is how they learn. Teach the concept of hard by explaining how each object feels, and what the name of each object is.

Milestones to meet:

Concept of hard

Language development (word-associations)

Discovery and exploration of everyday items
